

Dear Commissioner Henney,

Genetically altered foods pose unknown risks to public health, to family farmers and to the environment.

I support the demands of the lawsuit by Greenpeace which challenges the FDA's policy not to require labels on genetically engineered foods. Also I believe that these foods should be safety tested.

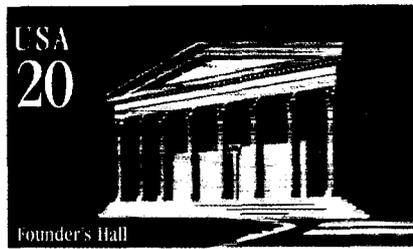

Sincerely,

Dolores Jippett

92N-0139

C5573

Ms. Dolores Tippet
P.O. Box 444
Byers, Colorado 80103

Girard College Philadelphia, PA 1848-1998

Commissioner Jane E. Henney
Food and Drug Administration
5600 Fishers Lane
Rockville, Maryland 20857

©1997 USPS recycled

